INFINI™
HIGH INTENSITY FOCUSED RF

What Our Customers
Are Saying

"The main advantage of INFINI, is that it delivers the RF energy in a very precise and controllable manner, which allows for more predictable and dramatic results, with less damage to surrounding tissue for less downtime than other competing procedures. I am particularly enthusiastic about the potential for off the face rejuvenation."

Victor Ross, M.D.

WHY CHOOSE INFINI HIGH INTENSITY FOCUSED RF TECHNOLOGY?

"I've done over a thousand INFINISkin treatments and booked over a million dollars in INFINISkin revenue. Not many devices can claim that level of success."

Steven Weiner, M.D., Florida

"INFINI has filled a niche in my practice, I now have an excellent option for patients that have sagging and wrinkling that is not severe enough for facelift and for patients with changes but want a non-surgical solution as well as a "re-tuck" for patients that already had a facelift."

Michael S. Clinton, M.D., FACS, Alabama

"The new radiofrequency microneedling technology by Lutronic INFINI offers short downtime and delivers energy at the level you want it to. Really impressive results with ease of operation."

Edmond Griffin, M.D., Georgia

"Infini is the most effective non-surgical tightening I have seen! It is an amazing tool for treating acne scarring and can be safely used on all skin types. As a facial plastic surgeon, I routinely recommend Infini for patients who do not want surgery. I honestly can't think of a patient in my practice who couldn't benefit from Infini. I, myself, have been thoroughly impressed with the results in my own face, both in regards to skin quality and laxity."

Lori Hansen, M.D., Oklahoma City, OK

---

"I really believe the INFINI device provides the most tightening and skin rejuvenation of anything I've seen in this class."

Jason Pozner, M.D., Florida

THE NEW FRACTIONAL RF MICRONEEDLING SYSTEM

"INFINI is a game changer when it comes to non-surgical skin tightening and wrinkle reduction... It delivers the energy precisely where you want it without worry of thermal damage surrounding tissue. You are able to maximize single treatment results by performing multiple passes. Plus, I love that I can treat my tanned patients."

Flor Mayoral, MD, USA

"With the INFINI, because it is radiofrequency and the needles are insulated, you are sparing the epidermis of any kind of thermal damage and can safely treat virtually any skin type."

Omar Ibrahim, M.D., Connecticut

"INFINI is a device of which you can change the depth on the fly. It's handheld, portable, delivers good energy and has multiple uses in the practice, the least of which is skin tightening and acne scarring."

Gilly Munavalli, M.D., North Carolina

"The advantage of INFINI radiofrequency microneedling is that patients can get these great, dramatic results without laser resurfacing. So they have virtually no downtime."

Tina West, M.D., Maryland

"I've been bringing back my acne scar patients who plateaued after a series of non-ablative fractional laser treatments and treated them with Infini. Every single patient that was treated with Infini improved after 1 session."

Joely Kaufman, M.D., Florida

"The disposable costs are negligible for this technology, especially when compared to the ultrasound. This helps to keep it a more profitable procedure for the practice."

John J. Martin, Jr., M.D., Florida

"In our practice, INFINI is definitely filling a niche, and it's filling a niche in how we treat acne scars. INFINI is our go-to device for patients that come in to smooth acne scars because it can treat all skin types effectively and safely."

Bradley Bloom, M.D., New York and New Jersey

"After learning of the combined advanced technology of simultaneous adjustable depth microneedling and Radiofrequency (RF) in INFINI, I incorporated it into my practice enthusiastically. Compared to CO2 resurfacing, INFINI provides similar clinical results with significantly less down time and great cost savings."

While my staff is performing the treatments they have the opportunity to cross-promote other products and services in the office to enhance the recovery, results and retention to the practice.

INFINI has proved to be a fantastic investment benefiting my practice in multiple facets."
